PART I.

INTRODUCTION.

INSTRUMENTAL.

Allegretto Pastorale.

No. 1. RECITATIVE, SOLI and CHORUS.

NARRATOR — SAMUEL.

I. Samuel XVI.

NARRATOR. (1) And the Lord said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thine horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Bethlehemit: for I have provided Me a king among his sons.

SAMUEL. (2) (And Samuel said) How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me.

NARRATOR. And the Lord said, Take an heifer with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice to the Lord. (3) And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will shew thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint unto Me him whom I name to thee.

CHORUS. (4) And Samuel did that which the Lord spake, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably?

SAMUEL. (5) (And he said) Peaceably; I am come to sacrifice unto the Lord; sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice.

CHORUS. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

(6) And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on Eliab, and said,

SAMUEL. Surely the Lord's anointed is before him.

NARRATOR. (7) But the Lord said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the Lord seeth not as man seeth; man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart.

No. 2. CHORAL RECITATIVE and CHORUS.

RECITATIVE.

SAMUEL — NARRATOR.

(Page 9.)

CHOR. RECIT. (8) Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said,

SAMUEL. Neither hath the Lord chosen this.

CHOR. RECIT. (9) Then Jesse made Shammah to pass by. And he said,

SAMUEL. Neither hath the Lord chosen this.

CHOR. RECIT. (10) Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel.

(11) And Samuel said unto Jesse,

SAMUEL. Are here all thy children?

CHORUS. And he said, There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse,

SAMUEL. Send and fetch him; for we will not sit down till he come hither.

CHORUS. (12) And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and withal of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to.

NARRATOR. And the Lord said, Arise, anoint him, for this is he.

(13) Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren; and the spirit of the Lord came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

No. 3. CHORUS.(Page 14.)

- (14) But the spirit of the Lord departed from Saul and an evil spirit from the Lord troubled him.
 (15) And Saul's servants said unto him,

CHORUS. Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee. (16) Let our lord now command thy servants which are before thee, to seek out a man, who is a cunning player on an harp;

CHOR. RECT. And it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall play with his hand, and thou shalt be well.

No. 4. RECITATIVE.

SAUL and one of his SERVANTS.

(Page 22.)

- (17) And Saul said unto his servants,

SAUL. Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.

- (18) Then answered one of the servants and said,

SAUL'S SERVANT. Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, that is cunning in playing, and a mighty valiant man, a man of war, and prudent in matters, and a comely person, and the Lord is with him.

- (22) And Saul sent to Jesse, saying,

SAUL. Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favor in my sight.

- (23) And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand; so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

No. 5. SYMPHONY

representing the gathering of the Armies of Saul and the Philistines.

RECITATIVE.

GOLIATH — DAVID — SAUL.

CHORUS.(Page 26.)

I. Samuel XVII.

- (1) Now the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle. (2) And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched by the valley of Elah, &c. (3) And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side. (4) And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

- (8) And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them,

GOLIATH. Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and ye servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me. (9) If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us. (10) I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together.

- (11) When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and sore afraid. (12) Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehem-Judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons.

- (14) And David was the youngest; and the three eldest followed Saul. (15) But David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem. (16) And the Philistine drew near morning and evening and presented himself forty days. (17) And Jesse said unto David his son, take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren.

- (19) Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines. (20) And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the trench, as the host was going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle. (21) For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army against army. (22) And David left his carriage in the hand of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and came and saluted his brethren. (23) And as he talked with them behold there came up the champion. (24) And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were sore afraid. (25) And the men of Israel said,

CHORUS. Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely to defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel.

- (26) And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying,

DAVID. What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? for who is he, that he should defy the armies of the living God?

- (27) And the people answered him after this manner, saying,

CHORUS. So shall it be done to the man who killeth him.

- (28) And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake unto the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, &c. (29) And David said, what have I now done? Is there not a cause? (30) And he turned from him toward another and spake after the same manner. (31) And when the words were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul: and he sent for him. (32) And David said to Saul,

DAVID. Let no man's heart fail because of him; thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine.

(33) And Saul said to David,

SAUL. Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth.

(34) And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock: (35) And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him.

DAVID. (36) Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God. (37) Moreover, the Lord that delivered me from the lion and the bear, He will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine.

And Saul said unto David,

SAUL. Go, and the Lord be with thee.

(38) And Saul armed David with his armour. (39) And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him. (40) And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand; and he drew near to the Philistine. (41) And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him. (42) And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him; for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance. (43) And the Philistine said unto David,

GOLIATH. Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves?

And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. (44) And the Philistine said to David,

Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

(45) Then said David to the Philistine.

DAVID. Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied. (46) This day will the Lord deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will give the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel. (47) And all this assembly shall know that the Lord saveth not with sword and spear: for the battle is the Lord's and He will give you into our hands.

(48) And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine. (49) And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slung it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead: and he fell upon his face to the earth. (50) So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David. (51) Therefore David ran and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled. (52) And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted.

CHORUS. Rejoice, O Israel, for he hath slain the mighty Philistine.

Job XXXVII.

(5) God thundereth marvellously with His voice; great things doeth He, which we cannot comprehend.

Psalms XLVII.

(2) For the Lord most high is terrible; (3) He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet.

No. 6. MARCH and DANCE.

CHORUS of WOMEN.

RECITATIVE.

SAUL — DAVID.

CHORUS.

(Page 60.)

I. Samuel XVIII.

MARCH. (5) And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and he behaved himself wisely; and DANCE. Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants. (6) And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of musick. (7) And the women answered one another as they played, and said,

CHORUS of WOMEN. Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

(8) And Saul was very wroth, and the saying displeased him: and he said,

SAUL. They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more than the kingdom?

(9) And Saul eyed David from that day and forward. (10) And it came to pass on the morrow, that the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house: and David played with his hand, as at other times: and there was a javelin in Saul's hand.

CHORUS. (20) And Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David:

and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. (21) And Saul said,

SAUL. I will give him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him.

Wherefore Saul said to David,

Thou shalt this day be my son-in-law.

(22) And Saul commanded his servants, saying,

SAUL and CHORUS. Commune with David secretly and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's son-in-law.

(23) And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David, and David said,

DAVID. Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?

No. 7. RECITATIVE and AIR.

JONATHAN.

(Page 71.)

I. Samuel XIX.

(1) And Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David. (2) But Jonathan delighted much in David: and told David, saying,

JONATHAN. (2) Saul my father seeketh to kill thee; now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself. (3) And I will go and stand before my father in the field where thou art, and I will commune with my father of thee; and what I see, that will I tell thee.

(4) And Jonathan spake good of David, unto Saul his father, and said unto him,

Let not the king sin against his servant David: because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good: (5) For he did put his life in his hand, and slew the Philistine, and the Lord wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it and didst rejoice: wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?

(6) And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul swore,

SAUL. As the Lord liveth, he shall not be slain.

RECITATIVE.

MICHAL.

I. Samuel XIX.

(7) And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan shewed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as in times past. (8) And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter: and they fled from him. (9) And the evil spirit from the Lord was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David played with his hand. (10) And Saul sought to smite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence. (11) Saul also sent messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal, David's wife, told him, saying,

MICHAL. If thou save not thy life to night, to morrow thou shalt be slain.

(12) So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him.

DAVID. (1) How long wilt Thou forget me, O Lord? How long wilt Thou hide Thy face from me? (2) How long shall I seek counsel in my soul, and be so vexed in my heart? how long shall mine enemies triumph over me?

(3) Consider, and hear me, O Lord my God: lighten mine eyes, that I sleep not in death. (4) Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him: for if I be cast down, they that trouble me will rejoice at it. (5) But my trust is in Thy mercy: and my heart is joyful in Thy salvation.

DAVID — NARRATOR.

I. Samuel XXV.

(5) And David sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men,

DAVID. Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name: (6) And thus shall ye say to him, Peace be both to thee, and to thine house, and unto all that thou hast. (8) Give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

CHORUS of YOUNG MEN. Peace be both to thee, and to thine house, and unto all that thou hast. Give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

NARRATOR. (10) And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants now a days that break away every man from his master. (11) Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be?

(12) So David's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings. (13) And David said unto his men, Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword: and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about four hundred men: and two hundred abode by the staff. (14) But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying,

BASS SOLO. Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master:

CHORUS. Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master: and he hailed on them. (15) But the men were very good unto us. (16) They were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep. (17) Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is such a son of Belial, that a man cannot speak to him.

No. 16. RECITATIVE and SOLI.

ABIGAIL.

I. Samuel XXV.

(18) Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses. (19) And she said unto her servants,

ABIGAIL. Go on before me: behold, I come after you.

But she told not her husband Nabal. (20) And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and, behold, David and his men came down against her: and she met them. (21) Now David had said, surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him, and he hath requited me evil for good. (22) So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertain to him by the morning light any that remain against the wall. (23) And when Abigail saw David, she hastened, and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground. (24) And fell at his feet, and said,

ABIGAIL. Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be: and let thine handmaid,

I pray thee, speak in thine audience.

(25) Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this man of Belial: for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him; but I, thine handmaid, saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send. (26) Now therefore, as the Lord liveth, seeing He hath withholden thee from coming to shed blood, let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal.

(30) And it shall come to pass, when the Lord hath done to thee according to all the good He hath spoken, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Israel;

(31) and have dealt with thee, then remember thine handmaid.

(32) And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me:

(33) And it came to pass about ten days after that the Lord smote Nabal, that he died.

DAVID — ABISHAI — ABNER — SAUL.

(Page 132.)

I. Samuel XXVI.

(1) And the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeath, saying.

CHOR. RECIT. Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon?

(2) Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness to seek David. (3) And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah. But David abode in the wilderness and saw that Saul came after him. (4) David therefore sent out spies. (5) And came to the place where Saul had pitched, and beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the trench, and the people pitched round about him. (6) Then David said to Ahimelech, and to Abishai,

DAVID. Who will go with me to Saul to the camp?

And Abishai said,

ABISHAI. I will go with thee.

(7) So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster: but Abner and the people lay round about him. (8) Then said Abishai to David,

ABISHAI. God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time.

(9) And David said to Abishai,

DAVID. Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the Lord's anointed, and be guiltless?

(10) David said furthermore, As the Lord liveth, the Lord shall smite him: or his day shall come to die: or he shall descend into battle, and perish.

(11) The Lord forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the Lord's anointed; but, I pray thee, take the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go.

(12) So David took the spear and the cruse of water: and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: because a deep sleep from the Lord was upon them. (13) Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off. (14) And cried to the people, and to Abner saying,

Answerest thou not, Abner?

Then Abner answered and said,

ABNER. Who art thou, that criest to the king?

(15) And David said to Abner,

DAVID. Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord. (16) As the Lord liveth, ye are worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master, the Lord's anointed.

(17) And Saul knew David's voice, and said,

SAUL. Is this thy voice, my son David?

And David said,

DAVID. It is my voice, my lord, O king. (18) Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand?

(21) Then said Saul,

SAUL. I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my soul was precious in thine eyes this day: (25) Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and also shalt still prevail.

NARRATOR. (1) Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa. (3) And the battle went against Saul, and he was sore wounded of the archers. (4) Then said Saul unto his armour-bearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith. But his armour-bearer would not; for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and fell upon it. (5) And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died with him.

CHORUS. Jerusalem the golden!

With milk and honey blest:
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice oppress.
I know not, oh! I know not
What joys await us there;
What radiancy of glory,
What bliss beyond compare!

They stand those halls of Sion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng:
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene.
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

(3)

There is the throne of David,
And there from care released,
The shout of them that triumph,
The song of them that feast;
And they, who with their Leader
Have conquered in the fight,
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.

NATHAN — DAVID — BATHSHEBA.

I. Kings I.

(1) Now king David was old and stricken in years. (5) Then Adonijah, the son of Haggith, exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and he prepared himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. (9) And slew sheep and oxen, and called all his brethren, and all the king's servants. (10) But Nathan, the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother he called not. (11) Wherefore Nathan spake unto Bathsheba, the mother of Solomon, saying,

NATHAN. Hast thou not heard that Adonijah, the son of Haggith, doth reign? and David our lord knoweth it not? (12) Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon. (13) Go, and get thee in unto king David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reign? (14) Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.

(15) And Bathsheba went in unto the king. (16) and did obeisance. And the king said,

DAVID. What wouldest thou?

(17) And she said unto him,

BATHSHEBA. My lord, thou swarest by the Lord thy God unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne. (18) Now, behold, Adonijah reigneth, and my lord, the king, thou knowest it not.

(20) And thou, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them, who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. (29) And the king swore, and said,

DAVID. As the Lord liveth, that hath redeemed my soul out of all distress, even as I swear unto thee by the Lord God of Israel, so will I certainly do this day.

(31) Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said,

BATHSHEBA. Let my lord king David live for ever.

(32) And king David said,

DAVID. Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada.

And they came before the king. (33) The king also said unto them,

DAVID. Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own mule, and bring him down to Gihon: (34) And let Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel: and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon. (35) Then ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne: for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah.

(39) And Zadok the priest took an horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet: and all the people said,

CHORUS. God save king Solomon.

Introduction.

E. C. ESSEX.

Allegretto pastorale. (♩ = 92.)

Pianoforte.

The musical score is for a piano introduction. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The tempo is marked 'Allegretto pastorale' with a quarter note equal to 92 beats per minute. The dynamics range from 'mp' (mezzo-piano) to 'mf' (mezzo-forte). The score is divided into six systems. The first system starts with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The second system continues the melody. The third system introduces a new melodic line in the treble. The fourth system continues the melody. The fifth system is marked 'A' and 'mf', indicating a new section. The sixth system continues the melody. The score ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

This page of musical notation consists of seven systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#). The notation includes various musical elements:

- System 1: Treble staff has a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. Bass staff has a simple harmonic accompaniment. Dynamics: Red. (first measure), p (fifth measure). Section marker B is above the fifth measure.
- System 2: Continuation of the melodic and harmonic lines. Dynamics: Red. (fourth measure).
- System 3: Continuation of the melodic and harmonic lines. Dynamics: p (second measure).
- System 4: Treble staff has a more complex melodic line with triplets. Bass staff has a simple harmonic accompaniment. Section marker C is above the first measure.
- System 5: Continuation of the melodic and harmonic lines.
- System 6: Continuation of the melodic and harmonic lines. Dynamics: mf (fifth measure).
- System 7: Continuation of the melodic and harmonic lines. Dynamics: mp (fourth measure).

Articulation marks include slurs, ties, and accents. There are also asterisks (*) and the word "Red." (likely a performance instruction) scattered throughout the piece.

Pianoforte.

The musical score is written for Pianoforte in G major and 4/4 time. It consists of five systems of staves. The first system begins with a treble and bass staff, with the treble staff starting on a whole note chord and the bass staff on a whole note chord. The second system continues the melody in the treble staff and adds a bass line. The third system features a more complex bass line with triplets. The fourth system includes a forte (f) dynamic and a crescendo (cresc.) marking. The fifth system ends with a fortissimo (ff) dynamic and a crescendo (cresc.) marking, followed by a section labeled 'A'.

This page of musical notation consists of six systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#). The notation includes various chords, triplets, and dynamic markings. A section labeled 'B' begins in the fifth system.

System 1: Treble staff has a triplet of eighth notes (F#, A, C#) followed by a quarter note (E). Bass staff has a triplet of eighth notes (F#, A, C#) followed by a quarter note (E).
System 2: Treble staff has a triplet of eighth notes (F#, A, C#) followed by a quarter note (E). Bass staff has a triplet of eighth notes (F#, A, C#) followed by a quarter note (E).
System 3: Treble staff has a triplet of eighth notes (F#, A, C#) followed by a quarter note (E). Bass staff has a triplet of eighth notes (F#, A, C#) followed by a quarter note (E).
System 4: Treble staff has a triplet of eighth notes (F#, A, C#) followed by a quarter note (E). Bass staff has a triplet of eighth notes (F#, A, C#) followed by a quarter note (E).
System 5: Treble staff has a triplet of eighth notes (F#, A, C#) followed by a quarter note (E). Bass staff has a triplet of eighth notes (F#, A, C#) followed by a quarter note (E).
System 6: Treble staff has a triplet of eighth notes (F#, A, C#) followed by a quarter note (E). Bass staff has a triplet of eighth notes (F#, A, C#) followed by a quarter note (E).

This page contains seven systems of musical notation, each consisting of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The music is written in a key with one sharp (F#) and includes various musical notations:

- System 1: Features triplets (indicated by a '3' over the notes) and a ff (fortissimo) dynamic marking.
- System 2: Includes a cresc. (crescendo) marking and a p (piano) dynamic marking. A section marked 'C' begins at the end of the system.
- System 3: Features a sempre cresc. (sempre crescendo) marking.
- System 4: Includes cresc., poco, and a markings.
- System 5: Features a ff (fortissimo) dynamic marking.
- System 6: Includes a section marked 'D'.
- System 7: Continues the musical notation with various rhythmic patterns.

Why are ye come out to set your bat - tle in ar -

The first system of the musical score for 'Recit. GOLIATH.' features a vocal line in bass clef and a piano accompaniment in treble and bass clefs. The key signature has one sharp (F#). The vocal line begins with a forte 'f' dynamic. The lyrics are 'Why are ye come out to set your bat - tle in ar -'.
